WHO HELPS YOU?

MARTY MARTIN, JD MPA HELPING YOU ACHIEVE YOUR MISSION ©

Your nonprofit will be challenged with:

Rising demand for services

Increasing board accountability

Enhanced organizational transparency

STARTING A NONPROFIT

Creating a nonprofit consists of various acts of vision, purpose, and, yes, law. Legal documents like your articles of incorporation, by-laws, and board policies establish a sound operating foundation for your nonprofit. They are an integral part of your IRS 1023 application.

Are you ready?

Marty Martin started a nonprofit and understands this process from both a founder's and a lawyer's perspective. He can help you use your IRS 1023 both to strengthen your strategic plan and to secure IRS and state recognition of your tax exempt status.

GOVERNANCE & MANAGEMENT

Your board is legally responsible for what happens. Often board members may have limited experience serving on a board of directors. How prepared are your board and staff for increasing legal and management requirements for:

IRS regulations?

Conflict of Interest?

Fundraising?

Intermediate Sanctions?

Advocacy?

Best Practices and Policies?

The 990?

Board Governance?

Marty Martin will work with you to address the many legal, governance, operating, and funding issues needed for your board to fulfill their fiduciary duties and for your staff to operate effectively.

BOARD & STAFF TRAINING

Successful nonprofits and their board and staff will be learning communities. Whether working with a single board and staff or with a community group, Marty Martin can provide training through a variety of means including seminar, webinar, and teleconference formats.

He has spoken on nonprofit organizations before diverse audiences for: Harvard Business School; Harvard Kennedy School; Duke University Non-profit Management Program; University of North Carolina; Western New England College School of Law; UNC School of Law; North Carolina State University; AFP; N.C. Center for Nonprofits; S.C. Association of Nonprofits; Philanthropy Journal; and Chronicles of Philanthropy.

See his website for a listing of presentations and courses offered: www.martinlegalhelp.com.

"Learned the need to convey to the board the seriousness of their commitment and responsibility. The need to face the divisive issues and not ignore them. Thanks for great insights and opening our minds to new approaches."
