MARTY MARTIN, JD MPA SPEAKER AND PRESS BIO STATEMENT

Marty Martin, JD MPA, Martin Law Firm, Raleigh, North Carolina, focuses his practice on providing legal services and board training for nonprofit and tax exempt organizations. He combines his unique combination of a lawyer's skills, a nonprofit practitioner's experience, and advanced training in nonprofit organizations to help these groups achieve their mission.

Martin served on the national Internal Revenue Service's Advisory Committee for Tax-Exempt and Government Entities (ACT) where he advised the IRS Exempt Organization Division's senior leadership and co-authored several reports. Martin received the IRS Commissioner's Commendation Award - the service's highest civilian award.

He served as a senior instructor with the Duke Nonprofit Management Certificate program and is affiliated with North Carolina State University's Institute for Nonprofits. Martin is a BoardSource Certified Governance Trainer and a Core Capacity Assessment Tool (CCAT) certified facilitator. He frequently speaks on topics related to nonprofit organizations.

Martin received a Master in Public Administration (MPA) degree with a concentration in managing nonprofit and public sector organization from the Harvard Kennedy School and a Juris Doctorate (JD) law degree from the Western New England University School of Law.

He has completed advanced training in nonprofit organizations from: Harvard Business School's Initiative on Social Enterprise; Harvard Kennedy School's Hauser Center for Nonprofit Organizations; Duke University's Nonprofit Management Program; University of California Berkeley Haas School of Business Certificate in Social Sector; Center for Creative Leadership; BoardSource; and the TCC Group.

He is an inductee into the Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Raleigh Hall of Fame and a three time recipient of the Wake County Bar Association's "President's Award of Excellence."

He may be reached at (919) 272-2106. For additional information, see his website at: www.MartinLegalHelp.com.
